"Our finding that greater social connectedness could be explained by increases in intrinsic amygdala connectivity within the social affiliation network but not intrinsic connectivity within the mirroring or mentalizing networks, supports the hypothesis that decoding others' feelings is distinct from decoding their thoughts or beliefs and further that the former is particularly important for maintaining more relationships with people in more social groups. This also highlights a potential division of labor within the social brain between brain regions that support hot and cold aspects of social cognition."

The trouble is that it is not one for the verbal-intellectual mind because of its analytic character. The wholeness of polarity can only be perceived when the mind works in a more holistic mode; otherwise, it is only an abstraction."

I've paid my dues

Time after time.

I've done my sentence

But committed no crime.

And bad mistakes—

I've made a few.

I've had my share of sand kicked in my face

But I've come through.
And I need to go on and on, and on, and on.
We are the champions, my friends.
And we'll keep on fighting 'til the end.
We are the champions.
We are the champions.
No time for losers
'Cause we are the champions of the world.
I've taken my bows,
And my curtain calls.
You brought me fame and fortune, and everything that goes with it.
I thank you all.
But it's been no bed of roses,
No pleasure cruise.
I consider it a challenge before the whole human race,
And I ain't gonna lose.
And I need just go on and on, and on, and on.
We are the champions, my friends.
And we'll keep on fighting 'til the end.
We are the champions.
We are the champions.
No time for losers
'Cause we are the champions of the world.

And the running blackberry would adorn the parlors of heaven,
And the narrowest hinge in my hand puts to scorn all machinery,
And the cow crunching with depressed head surpasses any statue,
And a mouse is miracle enough to stagger sextillions of infidels,
And I could come every afternoon of my life to look at the farmer's girl boiling her iron tea-kettle and baking shortcake.

I find I incorporate gneiss and coal and long-threaded moss and fruits and grains and
